Shane' Dubois

Chamber Board President 2020-2021

Since 2006, it has been my honor to volunteer and support the Chamber of Flowood and all the business enterprises serving together in our city. While serving in many different capacities over the years, it has been a privilege to assist in the chamber's efforts to promote the growth of the businesses, the community, and the people of the City of Flowood.

The Chamber of Flowood continues to serve many of the same members who helped to establish it in 2004 with the same goal in mind, to advocate for and support the prosperity of Flowood and area businesses. As Flowood has continued to grow and new members join in the efforts of the existing membership, our mission remains the same. From the first meeting in 2004 to the opening of the beautiful new chamber office and visitor center in 2021, the chamber dedicates itself to serving our members and building relationships to help them be successful. I hope that you will always feel welcomed and championed by our chamber.

As past president of the chamber board of directors, it has been a blessing to direct the chamber in grateful service to our city leadership and help support their vision for Flowood. Along the way, I personally have been forever impacted by the great business leaders, first responders, educators, and all the people that make up our Flowood family.

Amy Walker
Chamber Board President 2022

It is an exciting time for the Chamber of Flowood. We begin this year with a great opportunity in a growing city. As your new president, I am eager to contribute to the work that lies ahead.

In my years of service to the board, I have been most focused on inclusion and membership growth. I would like to welcome each new business that opens its doors in Flowood to be part of this supportive network of professionals.

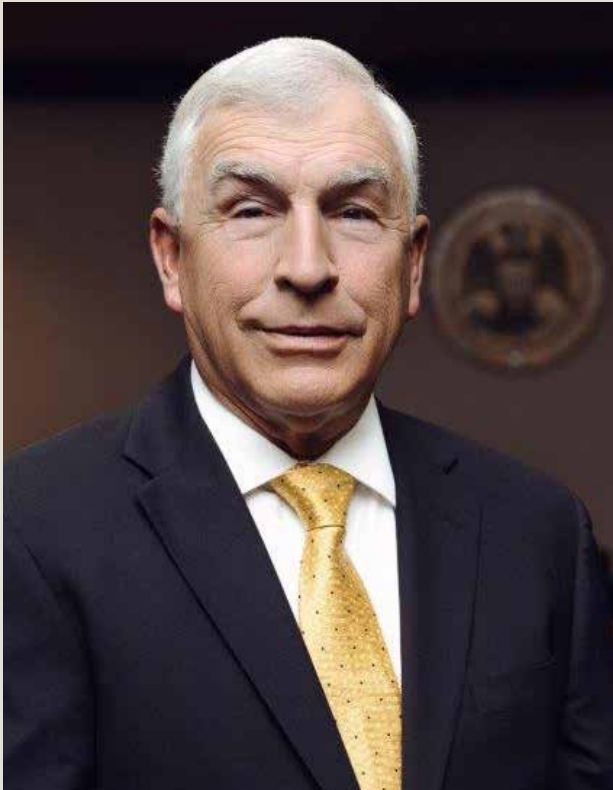

With 1,300 businesses in our city, we have gained almost 100 in the last year alone. As that growth continues, I hope that you will help me by reaching out and encouraging these businesses to get involved and be a part of the chamber community.

This year, the chamber and our new board of directors will focus on finding more ways for us all to connect and support each other. 2022 will bring new life to our committees and volunteer opportunities. I urge all of you to reach out to the chamber and tell us how you would like to be involved this year. The chamber is your champion, and we want to share your successes. You help inspire us and many others.

A chamber is only as strong as our members, and our members have proven their resilience and strength. But it all begins with the community that supports local businesses. We are blessed to have it all here in Flowood.

Welcome to Flowood

Dear Friends,

As mayor, it is my pleasure to welcome you to the City of Flowood, a destination for travelers and a place to call home for all. Flowood has been blessed and continues to prosper as one of the fastest growing cities in the state, and I am grateful to our leaders who put families first and make this city a great place to live, work, and play.

Alongside our board of aldermen, we strive to demonstrate a pro-business/pro-family philosophy. We believe that what is good for families is good for businesses and that what is good for businesses can also benefit families. Every opportunity for growth is viewed as an opportunity to improve the quality of life for our residents and corporate citizens.

Flowood is an innovative and ever-developing city, always striving for greater opportunities while also maintaining an unmatched sense of fellowship among residents and businesses, alike. Known for its expansive commercial and business opportunities as well as its exceptional community atmosphere, Flowood is rich with recreation and truly has something for everyone. I invite you to partake in all our city has to offer.

Our numerous retail and dining establishments, beautiful parks and recreation facilities, state-of-the-art medical resources, excellent public and private schools, and quality assisted living options make Flowood an accessible and welcoming place for all family members. As the city of small-town living with fast-paced industry, you can find it all in Flowood.

I hope you are blessed during your visit and consider yourself always welcome in Flowood.

Sincerely,

Parks & Recreation

The City of Flowood Parks & Recreation department upholds three essential ideals – economic value, health and environmental benefits, and social importance – to better service the Flowood community.

Flowood's recreational facilities add value to the community by providing a sense of public pride and togetherness. Just as water, sewer, and public safety are essential public services, parks are important to enhancing the quality of life in a community, ensuring the health of families and youth, and contributing to the economic and environmental well-being of Flowood.

Among the wide variety of recreational and leisure accommodations, the department also offers several rental facilities for civic, educational, and personal use. They work hard to ensure a safe, accessible, and welcoming space for all ages and encourage everyone to experience the fun in Flowood.

Fire Department

Fire Department
511 Vine Street
Flowood, MS 39232
601-992-9019

The Flowood Fire Department consists of four fire stations and a strong team that always puts others first. Their mission is to provide excellent fire protection and emergency medical services to the customers, residents, and visitors of the City of Flowood. That goal is accomplished through intensive hands-on training, research, and continuing education with firefighters who have a strong commitment to helping neighbors, regardless of the need.

Flowood businesses enjoy having lower commercial insurance rates due to the fire department's in-house training and Class 3 fire rating. The department is often the first to arrive on the scene in emergencies, which are more often related to medical than fire emergencies. The department credits its city leaders for providing facilities that allow for such first-rate emergency response training. They equip their trainees with the technical skills and knowledge to promptly and safely handle any fires, medical emergencies, natural disasters, and more.

The fire department attributes teamwork as central to their functionality. To be a member of the Flowood Fire Department is to dedicate yourself to a team that goes where they are called and is always focused on the greater good of the community. They are dedicated to ensuring an exceptional level of service and protection for all in the City of Flowood.

Dr. Nettie Hines and the HineSight Vision Care Team

Our one-on-one approach to optometry makes Dr. Hines and the HineSight Vision Care staff the eye and vision care providers of choice in the Jackson area. Our Flowood optometrist offers the following services: complete eye exams, contact lenses, glasses, medical eye care, glaucoma testing, and pre- and post-operative care.

A native of Yazoo City and a graduate of Jackson Preparatory School, Dr. Nettie Hines loves providing outstanding ocular care to her community. She realized her passion for visual optics while completing her studies in physics at the University of Mississippi.

Dr. Hines received her Doctor of Optometry from the University of Alabama at Birmingham. Over the last couple of years, she has created a unique practice utilizing the most innovative designs of contact lenses.

A national lecturer and an active member of the contact lens industry, Dr. Hines is committed to correcting your vision and protecting your eyes, no matter what. Specializing in hard to fit specialty contact lenses such as corneal RGPs and scleral lenses she provides complete eye care services.

A licensed optometrist, Dr. Hines provides exams, diagnoses, and treatments of all disorders that affect the eye or vision. In addition to training in eye diseases and disorders, Dr. Hines is also trained in anatomy, biochemistry, and physiology. With this training, Dr. Hines can recognize and treat a range of health issues, such as keratoconus, dry eye disease, glaucoma, macular degeneration, diabetes, and hypertension.

Dr. Hines works hard to stay current on the latest advances in eye health and vision care and regularly attends continuing education seminars and advanced training courses. It is because of Dr. Hines's dedication to continuing education that our Flowood patients receive the most modern and progressive vision care available.

Flowood Through the Years

The City of Flowood was first incorporated in 1953 as the small, rural “Town of Flowood.”

In 1962, Chastaine Flynt—Flowood’s first mayor—and other leaders focused heavily on developing a sound infrastructure for the area. They constructed roads that made Flowood more accessible, and they created a levee system throughout Rankin County to protect Flowood from the Pearl River.

With this new access to Flowood came the arrival of businesses, residences, and schools. By 1969, the town annexed Highway 25 (Lakeland Drive) and Highway 475 (Airport Road) into its city limits, which opened the area for further developments, and again, the town prospered as new subdivisions and businesses settled in the area.

In 1989, Chastaine Flynt retired after 36 years of serving as Flowood’s first mayor, and Flowood’s current mayor, Gary Rhoads, was elected along with a new board of aldermen. The following year, the “Town of Flowood” officially changed to the “City of Flowood,” blossoming into the thriving city we know today.

Fannye Cook Natural Area

Conservationist Fannye Cook (1889-1964) was the most widely known and nationally recognized scientist in Mississippi. Cook was instrumental in the creation of what is now known as the Mississippi Museum of Natural Science and the Mississippi Department of Wildlife, Fisheries, and Parks. Her dedication to conservation continues to inspire biologists and researchers, and the fruits of her conservation efforts will be seen for generations to come.

Named in her honor, the Fannye Cook Natural Area (FCNA) in Flowood spans around 3,000 acres and is the largest protected natural area in central Mississippi. The FCNA is among the top 20 largest, urban green spaces east of the Mississippi and is more than three times larger than New York City's Central Park.

Nonprofit organization, Wildlife Mississippi, plans to continue the preservation of the area by developing an expansive nature trail and recreation facilities that will promote wise use of the area while emphasizing a connection to conservation, sustainability, and the stewardship of Mississippi's natural heritage.

Upon completion, the FCNA and Trail will be one of the largest green spaces and nature trail systems in the United States. Public recreation activities will include wildlife viewing and photography, day-hiking, mountain biking, fishing and more, allowing many families to spend valuable time together.

Conservation of FCNA makes both ecological and economic sense. Wildlife Mississippi's goal is for the area to stimulate Mississippi's economy by retaining jobs and preserving property values. The area will promote a healthy lifestyle and improve quality of life, all while increasing the ecological sustainability of the natural resources we all depend upon.
