Chamber of Flowood announces Amy Cummins as new Executive Director

FLOWOOD, MS (June 20, 2025) — The Chamber of Flowood is pleased to announce the appointment of Amy Cummins as its new Executive Director. With more than 15 years of professional experience in leadership, marketing, community engagement, and event planning, Cummins brings a wealth of knowledge, energy, and vision to the organization.

Throughout her career, Cummins has demonstrated a strong commitment to building community partnerships, organizing impactful events, and leading with purpose. Her passion for service, combined with her ability to foster meaningful connections, makes her a valuable asset to the Flowood business community.

Cummins is a graduate of the Madison County executive leadership program and was recently named one of Mississippi's Top 50 Distinguished Businesswomen, a testament to her dedication and impact in both professional and volunteer roles. In addition to her professional accomplishments, she has served in leadership positions within civic organizations and has been recognized for her contributions to community service.

"I am honored to join the Chamber of Flowood and look forward to working alongside our local businesses, civic leaders, and community partners," said Cummins. "Flowood is a vibrant and growing city, and I'm excited to contribute to its continued success and development."

Amy has been married to her husband Tom for 29 years and is the proud mother of twin daughters, Megan and Madisyn. The Chamber of Flowood is confident Amy Cummins will bring fresh ideas, strong leadership, and a collaborative spirit to her new role. Please join us in welcoming her to the Chamber and the Flowood community.
