Join us for Artist at Work: Featuring Kit White at Pacesetter Gallery

Flowood, Miss –Local Jackson, MS artist, Kit White will be at Pacesetter Gallery Saturday, November 7th from noon until 3:00pm for an Artist at Work event. The artist will be working in the gallery on a mixed media piece, excited to meet and share with gallery visitors. Kit White is a graphic designer, illustrator, and printmaker. Originally from Arkansas, she has been living in Mississippi since January 2017. Kit graduated from Arkansas State University in 2001 with a BFA in Graphic Design. While attending ASU, her comic strip, "Blue Canary" was a top ten finalist for Scripps Howard Charles M. Schultz Award for college cartooning.

In 2019, Kit was juried in as a member of the Craftsmen's Guild Mississippi for her linoleum print blocks.

While skilled in digital graphics that are stock in trade for Graphic Design, her current works are in printmaking, altered books, and mixed media. She enjoys creating art by hand to explore both the visual and written aspect of art.

Kit currently lives in Jackson with her fiance and two cats and has been a part of the Pacesetter Gallery since its opening. The gallery carries large and small scale mixed media pieces such as Sunny Puppy and Astro-Astronomy, block prints such as We're All Mad Here, and block print notecard sets, perfect for the gift-giving season. Pacesetter Gallery owner Keri Davis states, "Kit's work has so many layers, her writing and printed paper base with acrylic painting and pen work gives her work great depth. We are excited to offer the public a chance to meet Kit and experience her at work!" Pacesetter Gallery has been open since July offering many cultural art events each month, for more information visit their website at www.pacesettergallery.com or www.facebook.com/pacesettergallery
